PRELUDE

Sweet By and By

by Joseph P. Webster
arr. by Mark Hayes

TO PREPARE OUR HEARTS AND MINDS FOR WORSHIP

If your vocation, your God-given path, should lead you in the way of pain, your own or someone else's, that may itself be a sign that you are called to make another journey up the mountain, to glimpse the vision of glory once more and to gather fresh strength for the journey. The first thing Jesus had to do on coming down the mountain was to heal a demon-possessed boy. The final thing he had to do was to go to Jerusalem and die. But he did the one and the other strengthened and encouraged by what had happened on the mountain.

What A Friend We Have in Jesus

arr. Catherine McMichael

LIGHTING THE CHRIST CANDLE

The Light of the World shone on the mountaintop in glorious splendor.
Jesus the Light shines on us today.
This light illumines our work and worship as we serve God together.
Come, let us worship the God of love and light.
Amen.

HYMN

#196

All Glory, Laud, and Honor

PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE

Teach us to know your ways, O God. Lead us in your truth. Look on neither our failures nor our sins, for we confess that we have not always followed you with willing hearts. We look to ourselves for strength instead of turning our eyes to your Light of the World Jesus. Remove our guilt and our distrust; we desire to live under your reign as Creator and Ruler of the World. Hear our prayers:

God is fair and just; God corrects the misdirected and sends them in the right direction. God leads us step-by-step on the road of life. Be assured that our God loves us with a deep and abiding love that covers all our sins. Thanks be to God! Amen.

Ubi caritas

The musical score is written for a four-part setting in 2/4 time, featuring a soprano, alto, tenor, and bass line. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are in Latin and English. The first system covers the first two lines of the text, and the second system covers the next two lines. The music includes various note values, rests, and a triplet in the final measure of the second system.
