Rev. Barb Schreur

Barb Schreur is a Holland native, having grown up in the Maplewood area, less than 10 blocks from FPC. She graduated from Calvin College in the 20th century and spent a large part of her adult life working in academia as a dean and a professor. She ended up in the Boston area where she met her wife Lauren, moving with her back to Michigan 9 years ago so that they could care for Barb's parents. Barb's 92 year old mother currently lives with them as do 2 foster kids, 1 dog, and 14 chickens.

SHOW & TELL

Join us on Saturday, February 28, for a rollicking time of coffee, snacks, and laughter. We will engage in teaching, introspection and conversation as we explore Hannah's story from 1 Samuel 1.

God shows us and tells us we are dearly cherished and loved as God's children.

How can we train our eyes and ears to see and listen to what God is saying and showing?

Also, how can we become people who are eager and able to offer those same glimpses and echoes to our families, friends, and neighbors?

The cost for the day will be $40. Coffee, snacks, and lunch will be provided.

Scholarships are available. Please contact Rev. Cathy C. Hoop if you need financial assistance.

If you need child care or any personal accommodations in order to participate, please contact Carleen Bauer or Rev. Cathy C. Hoop.
